

Abstract submission guidelines:

Please send your abstract to the following email address: julia.goydez@iasp.hu-berlin.de

Guidelines for the abstract are conform EPS \(European Poultry Science\):

- Include in the abstract, the title, authors and affiliations, main abstract text, key words, and publication statement.
- The word limit is 500 (spaces included) for the abstract and this includes the main text of the abstract and excludes the title, author names, affiliations, and key words.
- The title should be brief and clearly linking to the subject of the study and should not contain abbreviations.
- Provide the given author name(s) and family name(s) of each author. The order of authors should match the order for submission/printing in the abstract booklet. Carefully check that all names are accurately spelled. Affiliations should be footnoted using the following symbols: *, †, ‡, §, #, ||, and be placed below the author names. Do not include authors' titles, positions, or degrees.
- The corresponding author should be indicated with a numbered footnote (e.g., Corresponding author: name@university.edu).
- The main abstract text must contain the aim of the study, M&M (material and methods), results, and conclusion. No headings or references are allowed. Use of abbreviations should be limited. One figure or table can be added that support the abstract text.
- A maximum of five key words need to be included. These keywords should include relevant words and should be singular, not plural, terms (e.g., broiler, not broilers).
- Abstracts must be written in the English language.
- Please add a publication statement at the end of your abstract, if you agree or disagree with the publication of your abstract in the EPS \(European Poultry Science\). Publication statement need to be formatted as follows: 'I agree / disagree with the publication of my abstract in the EPS (European Poultry Science)'.
- Lay out of the abstract:
  - Title = Times New Roman, font size 14 and bold
  - Author names and affiliations = Times New Roman, font size 12 and Italic
  - Main text and key words = Times New Roman, font size 12
  - Publication statement = Times New Roman, font size 12
- Send the abstract in a Word document with the first authors surname as document name.
